

PRIVACY POLICY

EFFECTIVE DATE: JANUARY 1, 2022

This Privacy Policy outlines how SCRIP, Inc. collects, uses, and discloses information about visitors to atrinityharvest.org or any other website or online service that links to this Policy. By using the website, you acknowledge that you consent to the processing of your information as set forth in this Privacy Policy, now and as amended by us.

What Information We Collect

Information You Provide – We collect any information that you provide when you use the website, including when signing up for mailing list, making a donation, or contacting us for more information .

The information that you provide us can include, but is not limited to, (a) your name, contact information, and other registration information if you are able to set up an online account; (b) transaction-related information, such as contribution information; (c) information you provide when submitting an employment application form and associated information; and (d) information you provide us when you contact us.

Information Automatically Collected From You: When you visit the website, we automatically collect certain information about your device, such as information about your web browser, IP address, general geographic location, and some of the cookies that are installed on your device. Additionally, as you browse the website, we collect information about the individual web pages that you view, what websites or search terms referred you to the website, and information about how you interact with the website. We refer to this automatically-collected information as “Device Information.”

We collect Device Information using several technologies, including :

- “Cookies” are data files that are placed on your device or computer and often include an anonymous unique identifier. For more information about cookies, and how to disable cookies, visit <http://www.allaboutcookies.org>.
- “Log files” track actions occurring on the website, and collect data including your IP address, browser type, Internet service provider, referring/exit pages, and date/time stamps.
- “Web beacons,” “tags,” and “pixels” are electronic files used to record information about how you browse the Site.

How We Use Information We Collect

We may use the information we collect for a number of purposes, including, but not limited to:

- providing you with services or information you request;
- providing you with information about the foundation;
- delivering communications, promotional materials, or information about us and our work that may be of interest to you;
- customizing your experience when using the website such as by providing you with content based on your interests;
- allowing us to improve the website and the services we provide, such as by better tailoring our content to our users' interests;
- generating and analyzing statistics about your use of the website;

To Whom and When Do We Disclose Information

We do not disclose information we collect from you through the website:

- to third parties except, as required by law, such as to comply with a subpoena or other legal process, or to comply with government reporting obligations;

Your Choices

We may use Google Analytics, or other third party tracking solutions to gather and analyze data related to how visitors find and access the Site. You can read more about how Google uses your Personal Information here: <https://www.google.com/intl/en/policies/privacy/>

You can also opt-out of Google Analytics here: <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

Security

We have administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to safeguard the information collected by the website. However, no information system can be 100% secure, so we cannot guarantee the absolute security of your information. Moreover, we are not responsible for the security of information you transmit to the website over networks that we do not control, including the Internet and wireless networks.

Changes to this Policy

If we update this Privacy Policy, we will notify you by posting a new Privacy Policy on this page and providing any additional notice required by applicable law.

Contact Us

For more information about our privacy practices, or if you have questions or concerns, please contact us at (860) 400-2488.